Conditions for Registration at Sultan Bahu Masjid

Please read all boxes and sign the declaration. This is to declare you have/understand:

Condition	Tick
Witnesses:
Two witnesses with addresses. One representing the Bride, and another for the Bridegroom.
All spellings are correct on application form.
Mahr (Dowry):
This a compulsory act in Nikah and it is an amicable amount between Bride and Bridegroom. (Large and burdensome amounts should be avoided.)
It will be paid before the Nikah ceremony. If Bride agrees for it to be deferred, it is the obligation on the Bridegroom, that it is to paid at the request of the Bride or at the agreed deferred time.
Both Bride & Bridegroom are to be aware of the principles of the Mahr and take ownership of its obligations.
Identification Documents (Bride, Bridegroom, Wakeel & Witnesses):
Proof of ID (Passport/Driving Licence) Oversees resident must have 1-month valid visa on passport
Proof of address (driving licence, utility bill etc) attached
Divorce certificates: If either the bride or bridegroom have previously been married, we will need to see divorce certificates from the British courts or an Islamic sharia council
Safeguarding:
Applicants will attend the pre nikah consultation.
Where Nikah is conducted over a period of more than one occasion, permission will be taken again from Bride/Bridegroom on the day the Nikah is finalised. This will incur an additional charge of £100
Nikah Event:
The Nikah must be completed within 1 hour of the start time mentioned on the application form. The Imam reserves the right to leave if the allotted time is passed.
Please tick this box to state you accept Nikah as a sacred act of worship, whereby it will not be spoilt by creating an unislamic atmosphere at the venue.

Fee:

- The recommended contribution for the Nikah is £350 for Birmingham addresses. Outside of Birmingham will be dependent on distance, usually this is £100.
- If this amount is not manageable, please do not hesitate to let us know. We would not wish for anyone to delay their Nikah on the basis of affordability.

Declaration:

I sincerely declare that the full content of this application is true. I accept the above conditions, and I am not aware of many discrepancies from any participant on this application. I am happy for Sultan Bahu Masjid to conduct my Nikah.
